Summary of Fees for Information Requests Made Under the MFIPPA

If you request information under the Municipal Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act you may be required to pay certain fees. The rules regarding the payment and amount of fees are set out in the Act and its regulations. Typical fee charges are summarized below.

If you are requesting information about yourself, your request is considered a "Personal Information Request." All other information, whether about a person other than yourself or about a government program or activity are considered "General Information Requests." General information requests are charged different fees than personal information requests.
