Chief's Report

Personnel

1) New Experienced Officer

Cst. Derek King has successfully fulfilled all of the requirements in his letter of offer, and will commence his employment with the Saugeen Shores Police Service as a 1st Class Constable on April 24th 2023. Cst. King will be assigned to A2 Platoon under the direct supervision of Sgt. Adam Sachs. The Police Services Board is invited to a swear-in ceremony which will take place in the boardroom on April 27 2023 at 4pm.

2) Special Constable Greg Fletcher - Appointment

Greg Fletcher has been appointed as a Special Constable. This appointment is valid until April 3rd 2028 unless revoked.

2) Jail Guard Positions

At present we have 6 Jail guards, only a few of these guards routinely fill the requests for coverage. If we are unable to get a jail guard or a special constable, we have to pay an Officer. It is more economical to bolster the number of Jail Guards, and adding 2 on call jail guards will assist in this regard. Aside from a 3hr training session, there is no negative impact to our budget. With the approval of the Police Services Board, we will post for, and hire 2 jail guard contract positions.

Motion 4 – Greg Thede/John Divinski

That the Saugeen Shores Police Services Board approve the request to post for and hire 2 additional jail guards on a temporary part-time contract of employment.

Disposition – Carried

3) Cadet Recruitment

As per the approved SSPS Police Budget, we are set to hire a new recruit for the fall session at the Ontario Police College. The recruit will then be able to complete their Coach officer training period prior to the summer of 2024. If approved by the Board, we will post for the cadet recruit position, and get the recruitment underway to meet the deadline.

Motion 5 – John Woodley/Greg Thede

That the Saugeen Shores Police Service Board approves the request to post for and a cadet recruit for the fall intake at the Ontario Police College. The successful applicant will be presented to the Police Services Board at the July 2023 meeting to seek approval to extend a conditional letter of employment.

Disposition – Carried

4) Thank you – A2 Platoon / CI Officer
On Monday April 3rd, Sgt Briggs and Cst. Gordon volunteered their off duty time to “Please Bring Me Home”, to search for 2 missing men from outside our area. This search located the men. Both Susan and Stacey helped to control the scene and contacted victim services to support the searchers and family. Although the outcome was not what anyone wanted, we are happy that Susan and Stacey could be there to assist and support during this difficult time.

Events / Committees

1) Job Fair and Career Expo

Constable Stacey Gordon, Aux. Cst. McNeill, Chief Zettel, Lauren from OSPS dispatch, and a coop student attended the Plex in Port Elgin on March 22nd to set up a booth at the Job Fair. This event was very well attended and allowed us the opportunity to speak to members of the public about a career in policing.

2) Artwork at the Police Station

In March 2023, the Southampton Art Gallery manager set up an artwork display of local artist Sydney Bradshaw. This endeavor allows the Saugeen Shores Police Service to support young emerging artists in our community.

Sydney Bradshaw is a graduate of the Eastwood Collegiate Integrated Arts Program and is currently studying Fine Arts at the University of Waterloo. She spends her summers and holidays in Southampton where she has a home studio. Sydney absorbs the world around her and releases it through her art. She has recently been diagnosed with autism. Art is a way for her to express her creativity and imagination – it both soothes her and allows her to communicate her thoughts and feelings. She has been creating art since she was a child and has developed artistic skills using many different mediums and materials. She will often focus intensely on a specific medium before moving on to the next. In addition to her oil painting, she draws, does digital art, and stained glass sculpts in various mediums, and makes prints from her carvings. Sydney also makes jewelry from objects found on the shoreline and combines them with fimo clay resin wire. Her goal is to experiment with as many mediums, colours and textures as possible, make mistakes, and turn them into works of art.
